DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is responsive to the applicants' RCE filed on May 17, 2006

Claims 1 and 11 have been amended. Claims 4-6, 8 and 10 have been withdrawn. Accordingly, claims 1-3, 7, 9, and 11 are pending in this application.

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "outer edge and inner edge of the control blades" must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "said fluid control elements" in line 8. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Objections

3. Claim 2 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form (i.e. "control blades" recited in claims 1 and 2).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-3 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by White (Patent Number 3,221,662).

Regarding claims 1-3 and 11, White (as shown in Figs. 1, 2 and 4) discloses an outlet airflow direction control unit, comprising: a frame having an inner peripheral wall (24) defining an air passageway having an inlet/outlet (not numbered; however, clearly seen in Figs. 1 and 4), a plurality of radially inwardly projected fluid control elements/blades/ribs (9, 25, 27, 28, 29, 31, 32) each having an outer edge fixed to the peripheral wall at the outlet and a free inner edge; a fan (21) being supported in the frame, and disconnected from the fluid control elements (9, 25, 27, 28, 29, 31, 32); wherein the fan being rotatable to direct an amount of fluid into and out of the frame via the inlet and the outlet, respectively, and fluid control elements (9, 25, 27, 28, 29, 31, 32) are arranged and configured so that a fluid flowing out from the outlet is directed to flow radially inward.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over White '662 in view of design choice.

White discloses the invention as recited above; however, White fails to disclose the control blades being as one of the T-shaped, L-shaped, and reverse L-shaped. It is examiner's position that one having ordinary skill in the rotary compressor art, would have found it obvious to utilize the shape of the control blades, since they are merely design parameters, depending on temperature, pressure, or stress acted/applied on the control blades or depending on for being used for a particular purpose, or solving a stated problem. Moreover, there is nothing in the record which establishes that the claimed the blades being T-shaped or L-shaped or reverse L-shaped under such conditions, presents a novel of unexpected result (See In re Kuhle, 526 F.2d 553, 188 USPQ 7 (CCPA 1975)).

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claim 9 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
